Salem Lutheran Home Hosts a Veteran's Day Showcase!

Nov. 10, 2010 – Oakland, Calif. – Salem Lutheran Home in Oakland is hosting a Veteran's Day Showcase with the Stagebridge Dreamers, a senior-focused musical and storytelling group. The event is being held at Salem Lutheran Home, Nov. 11, at 11 a.m. and will feature storytelling, resident's photos, memorabilia and music from the 30s, 40s and 50s.

To honor residents, staff and family members who have served their country, Salem's residents have compiled beautiful storyboards for the event which highlight their experiences and include photographs of themselves and loved ones in uniform.

The event is free and open to the public and is being held in Salem's Gathering Room, located at 2361 East 29th Street, Oakland, CA 94606.

About Stagebridge

Stagebridge began in 1978 as an acting class at a senior center taught by Stuart Kandell. Within a year, the actors began performing original collaborative plays at senior centers and in elementary schools. Audiences responded strongly to seeing their peers or grandmas and grandpas on stage.
